

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF FINLAND
RELATING TO CIVIL AIR TRANSPORT

The Government of People's Republic of China and the Government of the Republic of Finland (hereinafter referred to as "the Contracting Parties"), with a view to facilitating friendly contacts between the peoples of China and Finland and developing the mutual relations between the two countries in respect of air transportation, in accordance with the principles of mutual respect for independence and sovereignty, non-interference in each other's internal affairs, equality and mutual benefit as well as friendly cooperation,

Have agreed on the establishment and operation of scheduled air services between their respective territories as follows:

Article 1

1. Each Contracting Party grants to the other Contracting Party the right to operate scheduled air services (hereinafter referred to as "the agreed services") on the route specified in the Annex to the present Agreement (hereinafter referred to as "the specified route").
2. Subject to the provisions of the present Agreement, aircraft of the airline designated by each Contracting Party (hereinafter referred to as "the designated airline") operating on the agreed services over the specified route shall have the right to make stops at the points on the specified route in the territory of the other Contracting Party for the purpose of putting down or taking on international traffic in passengers, baggage, cargo and mail coming from or destined for the territory of the first Contracting Party as well as that coming from or destined for the intermediate points.
3. Each Contracting Party shall notify the other Contracting Parties not later than sixty (60) days in advance of the date of the commencement of the operation of the agreed services by its designated airline.

Article 2

1. Each Contracting Party shall have the right to designate one airline to operate the agreed services on the route specified in the Annex to the present Agreement and shall notify the other Contracting Party of such designation through diplomatic channels.
2. The substantial ownership and effective control of the airline designated by each Contracting Party shall remain vested in such Contracting Party or its citizens.
3. On receipt of such notification, the other Contracting Party shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article, grant without delay to designated airline of the first Contracting Party the appropriate operation permission.

Article 3

1. Each Contracting Party shall have the right to revoke the operating permission already granted to the designated airline of the other Contracting Party, or to suspend the exercise of the rights specified in Article 1 of the present Agreement by the said airline, or to impose such conditions as it may deem necessary on the exercise of these rights, in case:
 - 1) where it is not satisfied that the substantial ownership and effective control of that airline are vested in the Contracting Party designated the airline or its citizens; or
 - 2) where that designated airline fails to comply with the laws and regulations of the first Contracting Party; or
 - 3) where that airline otherwise fails to operate in accordance with the conditions prescribed under the present Agreement.
2. Unless immediate revocation, suspension or imposition of conditions mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article is essential to prevent further infringements of laws and regulations, such right shall be exercised only after consultation with the other Contracting Party.

Article 4

The laws and regulations of either Contracting Party relating to the admission to, stay in, departure from and operation in its territory of aircraft engaged in the operation of international air services as well as the laws and regulations relating to the admission to, stay in, departure from its territory of passengers, crew, baggage, cargo and mail shall be applicable to the aircraft of the airline designated by the other Contracting Party, its crew as well as the passengers, baggage, cargo and mail carried by such aircraft, while in the territory of the first Contracting Party. Each Contracting Party shall supply the other Contracting Party information relevant to the above-mentioned laws and regulations in time.

Article 5

1. Aircraft operated on the agreed services by the designated airline of the either Contracting Party, as well as the regular equipment, spare parts, supplies of fuel and lubricants and aircraft stores (including food, beverages and tobacco) retained on board such aircraft shall be exempt from all customs duties, inspection fees and other similar charges on arrival in and departure from the territory of the other Contracting Party, provided that such equipment and supplies remain on board the aircraft up to such time as they are re-exported or are used on part of the journey performed over the territory;
2. There shall also be exempt from the same duties, fees and charges, with the exception of charges corresponding to the service performed:
 - a) aircraft stores taken on board in the territory of the either Contracting Party within limits fixed by the authorities of the said Contracting Party, and for use on board outbound aircraft engaged in the agreed services operated by the designated airline of the other Contracting Party;
 - b) aircraft spare parts, regular equipment and stores introduced into the territory of either Contracting Party for use in the operation of the agreed services by the designated airline of the other Contracting Party; and
 - c) fuel and lubricants destined to supply outbound aircraft of the other Contracting Party, even when these supplies are to be used on the part of the journey performed over the territory of the Contracting Party in which they are taken on board.

3. The regular airborne equipment, as well as the materials and supplies retained on board the aircraft of the designated airline of either Contracting Party as well as those introduced into the territory of the other Contracting Party may be unloaded in the territory of the other Contracting Party only with the approval by the customs authorities of the other Contracting Party. In such case, they shall be placed under the supervision of the said authorities and shall not be sold or used for other purposes in the above territory until such time as they are re-exported or otherwise disposed of in accordance with customs regulations.

Article 6

1. Each Contracting Party shall designate in its territory regular airport and alternate airport to be used by the designated airline of the other Contracting Party for the operation of the specified route, and provide the latter with communications, navigational, meteorological and other auxiliary services in its territory as are required for the operation of the agreed services. Detailed arrangements for the above shall be agreed upon between the Aeronautical Authorities of both Contracting Parties. (For the purpose of the present Agreement, the term "Aeronautical Authorities" means, in case of China, the General Administration of Civil Aviation of China, and in case of Finland, National Board of Aviation.)
2. The designated airline of one Contracting Party shall be charged for the use of airport(s), equipment, technical services and air navigation facilities of the other Contracting Party at fair and reasonable rates prescribed by the appropriate authorities of the other Contracting Party. Such rates shall not be higher than those normally paid by airlines of the other States.

Article 7

1. The designated airlines of both Contracting Parties shall have fair and equal opportunities in operating the agreed services on the specified routes.
2. In operating the agreed services, the designated airline of each Contracting Party shall take into account the interests of the designated airline of the other Contracting Party, so as not to affect unduly the services which the latter provides on the whole or part of the same route.
3. Matters relating to the operation of the specified routes such as frequency, type of aircraft, schedule, sales representation and ground handling shall be agreed upon through consultation between the designated airlines of both Contracting Parties. The frequency, type of aircraft as well as schedule so agreed shall be subject to the approval of their respective Aeronautical Authorities.
4. The agreed services provided by the designated airlines of both Contracting Parties shall satisfy the current and anticipated requirements for the carriage of passengers, baggage, cargo and mail coming from or destined for the territory of the Contracting Party which has designated the airline. Provision for the carriage of passengers, baggage, cargo and mail both taken up and put down at points on the specified routes in the territories of the third countries shall be made in accordance with the general principle that capacity shall be related to:
 - a) traffic requirements to and from the territory of the Contracting Party which has designated the airline;
 - b) traffic requirements of the area through which the agreed services pass, after taking account of the other air services established by airlines of the States comprising the area;and

- c) the requirements of through airline operation.

Article 8

1. In the following paragraphs, the term “tariff” means the prices to be paid for the carriage of passengers, baggage and cargo and the conditions under which those prices apply, including prices and conditions for agency and other auxiliary services, but excluding remuneration or conditions for the carriage of mail.
2. The tariffs to be applied on the specified on the specified routes between the territory of one Contracting Party and that of the other Contracting Party shall be agreed upon between the designated airlines of both Contracting Parties. Such tariffs shall be established at reasonable levels, due regard being paid to all relevant factors, including cost of operation, reasonable profit and the tariffs of the other airlines.
3. The tariffs so agreed shall be submitted for the approval of the respective Aeronautical Authorities at least ninety (90) days before the proposed date of their introduction. In special cases, this period may be reduced, subject to the agreement of the said authorities.
4. If neither of the Aeronautical Authorities of the two Contracting Parties has expressed disapproval within thirty (30) days from the date of submission in accordance with paragraph 3 of this Article, these tariffs shall be considered as approved. In the event of the period for submission being reduced, as provided for in paragraph 3, the Aeronautical Authorities of both Contracting Parties may agree that the period within which any disapproval must be notified shall be less than thirty (30) days.
5. If a tariff cannot be agreed in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article, or if, during the period applicable in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Article, the Aeronautical Authorities of one Contracting Party give the Aeronautical Authorities of the other Contracting Party notice of their disapproval of any tariff agreed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2, the Aeronautical Authorities of the two Contracting Parties shall endeavour to determine the tariff by mutual agreement.
6. If the Aeronautical Authorities of both Contracting Parties cannot agree on any tariff submitted to them under paragraph 3 of this Article, or on the determination of any tariff under paragraph 5 of this Article, the dispute shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article 13 of the present Agreement.
7. A tariff established in accordance with the provisions of this Article shall remain in force until a new tariff has been established.

Article 9

The Revenue derived from the transportation of international traffic by the designated airline of each Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party shall be permitted to be transferred, at the official rate of exchange, by the other Contracting Party.

Wherever the payments system between the Contracting Parties is governed by a special agreement, that agreement shall apply.

Article 10

1. For the operation of the specified route, the designated airline of each Contracting Party shall have the right to set up its representation at the point of call on the specified route in the territory of the other Contracting Party. The staff of such representative office shall be citizens of the People's Republic of China and of the Republic of Finland and the number of staff shall be agreed upon through consultation between the designated airlines of both Contracting Parties, and shall be subject to the approval of the Aeronautical Authorities of both Contracting Parties. The staff of such representative office must observe the laws and regulations in the country where such office is located.

2. Each Contracting Party shall extend assistance and convenience to the representative office and its staff members of the designated airline of the other Contracting Party and ensure their safety.
3. Each Contracting Party shall endeavour to ensure the safety of the aircraft, stores and other properties in its territory used on the agreed services by the designated airline of the other Contracting Party.
4. The crew members of the designated airline of either Contracting Party flying on the specified route shall be citizens of such Contracting Party. In case where the designated airline of each Contracting Party desires to utilize crew members of other nationalities for the operation on the specified route, approval shall be obtained from the other Contracting Party.

Article 11

1. Should an aircraft of the designated airline of one Contracting Party experience an accident or be in distress in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the other Contracting Party shall instruct its appropriate authorities to immediately inform the Aeronautical Authorities of the first Contracting Party and provide necessary assistance to the crew and passengers on board the aircraft.
2. In case where the accident involves death or serious injury of persons or serious damage to aircraft, the other Contracting Party shall instruct its appropriate authorities to take further the following measures:
 - a) immediately provide search and rescue operation;
 - b) protect evidences and secure the safety of the aircraft and its contents;
 - c) carry out investigation into the accident;
 - d) permit the observers of the first Contracting Party access to the aircraft and to be present in the investigation;
 - e) release the aircraft and its contents as soon as they are no longer necessary for the investigation;
 - f) communicate in writing to the Aeronautical Authorities of the first Contracting Party the result of the investigation.

Article 12

In a spirit of close cooperation, the two Contracting Parties shall consult each other from time to time with a view to ensuring the implementation of, and satisfactory compliance with the provisions of the present Agreement and the Annex thereto.

Article 13

If any dispute arises between the Contracting Parties relating to the interpretation or implementation of the present Agreement, the Contracting Parties shall in the first place instruct their respective Aeronautical Authorities to settle it by negotiation. If the said Authorities fail to reach an agreement, the dispute shall be settled through diplomatic channels.

Article 14

If either of the Contracting Parties considers it desirable to modify or amend any provision of the present Agreement or the Annex thereto, it may request consultation with the other Contracting Party. Such consultation, which may be between Aeronautical Authorities and which may be through discussion or by correspondence, shall begin within a period of sixty (60) days from the date of request. Modifications and amendments so agreed upon shall come into force when they have been confirmed by an exchange of diplomatic notes.

Article 15

1. The present Agreement shall come into force after both Contracting Parties have respectively completed their legal formalities and notified each other to this effect through exchange of diplomatic notes.
2. Either Contracting Party may at any time give notice to the other Contracting Party of its desire to terminate the present Agreement. The present Agreement shall then terminate twelve (12) months after the date of receipt of the notice by the other Contracting Party. If the above notice is withdrawn before the expiry of this period, the present Agreement shall continue to be in force with the concurrence of the other Contracting Party.

In witness whereof the undersigned, being duly authorized thereto by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.
